

TERRIBLE STORY

Of the Fatal Interruption of Wedding Festivities.

The Walls of a Restaurant Fall Burying the Happy Party.

Nine Killed and at Least Thirty Others Are Badly Injured, some of Whom Can Not Recover, and Others Will Be Crippled for Life.

MADRID, Nov. 17.—The fatal interruption of wedding festivities is reported from Bejar, a town forty-five miles south of Salamanca. A young couple had just been married in the church there, and the wedding party had gone to a restaurant where a wedding feast was served. Everybody was in the highest of spirits. After the banquet dancing was begun, and everything was progressing smoothly, when suddenly, and without an instant's warning, the walls of the building collapsed. The entire party, together with the employees of the restaurant, were buried in the ruins. A crowd, attracted by the noise made by the falling building, quickly gathered for the work of rescue. From amid the debris moans and heart-rending cries for help could be heard issuing. As rapidly as possible, and hurried on by the frantic appeals for help, the men threw the heavy timbers aside. They soon came across the terribly crushed and mangled body of one of the wedding guests. It was removed and laid on the sidewalk. Soon several persons who had been caught by the falling timbers were taken out alive, but badly injured. When the wreck was cleared away sufficiently for it to be known that no one else was in the ruins nine bodies were lying in a row on the sidewalk. The injured numbered thirty, some of whom, it is thought, will not recover. Others will be crippled for life. It is supposed that the movements of the dancers was responsible for the collapse.

SINGULAR INCIDENT.

The Bottom of the Well of an Illinois Farmer Drops Out.

VINCENNES, Ind., Nov. 17.—Wm. Ramsey, a farmer living near St. Francisville, Ill., relates a very singular incident that happened to a well on his farm, which is vouched for by his worthy neighbors. Recently he dug a well and walled it up with stone. The well was thirty-six feet deep, and until Tuesday contained an abundance of pure water. When Mr. Ramsey went to slake the thirst of his horses, after drawing the first bucket of water he carried it to his team, several yards away. A roaring noise resembling distant thunder startled him, and, turning around to observe the cause of the commotion, he was amazed at the sight of a large volume of water issuing from the well and shooting high into the air. Subsequent investigation showed him that the bottom of the well had fallen out, and that the stone wall had sunk entirely out of sight into a bottomless pit, which contained not a drop of water. The earth surrounding the well was firm and solid and by means of heavy long planks Mr. Ramsey approached the abyss and dropped whole bricks into the deep cavity from which he could hear no sound. A rope 180 feet long was let down in the cavern and yet no bottom was reached. A neighbor of Mr. Ramsey, who boasted of the finest well of water in the county, also found that in a single night his well had gone dry.

McMullen, of Dearborn; James Phipper, of Tipton, and Richard Erwin, of Adams.

KNIGHTS OF LABOR

Listen to the Annual Address of General Master Workman Powderly.

St. Louis, Nov. 17.—The general assembly knights of labor reconvened in secret session Wednesday afternoon, with General Master Workman Powderly in the chair. Mr. Powderly, in his annual address, gave it as his opinion that all local assemblies should be made up of a mixed membership. Each local assembly should admit men and women of all trades and occupations. "It is the opinion of your general master workman that we should go still further in advocating the passage of election laws which will render it impossible for any person to vote unless he can read his ballot."

"Some six years ago your general master workman declared that he was in favor of the restriction of immigration. The views then expressed were not received with favor by the order, but, notwithstanding that fact, his sentiments have not changed since then, unless it be in the direction of a more rigid exclusion of immigrants than he then favored. I favor the total exclusion of all immigrants who are not self-sustaining on landing in this country."

The speaker advocated affiliation with the farmers' alliance and other similar organizations; recommended the organization of a beneficial feature of the order, and in conclusion said he knew of nothing he had done during the year that he would not do over again under similar circumstances.

The general secretary and treasurer's report was next submitted. His financial statement shows that, including the balance on hand at the beginning of the fiscal year, July 1, 1891, the total receipts of the order has been $90,614.19, and the total expenditures $59,748.82, leaving a balance on hand July 1, 1892, of $805.37.

THE OHIO VOTE.

Nine Counties Yet to Hear From—Remarkable Close Race Between the Two Parties.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 17.—Wednesday was the last day on which the abstracts of the vote cast at the recent election were to be forwarded to the secretary, and there are still nine counties entirely unreported, and one county (Clark) whose election board has made an incomplete return. The counties that have not been heard from are: Darke, Defiance, Fayette, Franklin, Guernsey, Lawrence, Lucas, Ross and Stark. With the possible exception of Fayette and Franklin, in which there are controversies over the count of the vote for circuit judge, all these will undoubtedly be heard from Thursday. Nine more counties reported Wednesday, but among them was Cuyahoga, and the clerks in the state department were kept so busy looking over the numerous books received from Cleveland that, although they worked until 10 o'clock Wednesday night, they were not able to tabulate the returns. Remarkably enough, in Cuyahoga county Danford, the leading republican elector, not only did not run ahead of the other republican electors, but had a smaller vote than four of his colleagues. Cuyahoga is the only county in the state in which Danford did not run ahead of the ticket. The totals up to date have been figured out in the seventy-eight counties as follows:

Danford, Rep.	257,630
Other Republicans	235,831
Seward, Dem.	258,469
Other Democrats	256,411
Secretary of State—
S. M. Taylor, Rep.	321,523
W. A. Taylor, Dem.	301,421

Danford is already 2,378 votes ahead of his colleagues, and Seward 2,147 votes ahead of the other democratic electoral candidates.

CHINN'S VITALITY.

That Bullet Seemed to Be Charmed—He Will Be Around Again in a Few Days.

St. Louis, Nov. 17.—Jack Chinn, who was shot at the East St. Louis track Tuesday, has so far recovered that he has been moved to this city. The physicians state that he will be around again in a few days. The bullet in passing through his neck took a circuitous course, and half it at any point varied an eighth of an inch it would have severed a vein or an artery and caused death. Chinn still maintains his anger toward Capt. Anthony, stating that had the shooting been done by Sinclair, whom he was about to attack, it would have been all right, but that Anthony had no business to interfere.

At the track Wednesday afternoon there was considerable quiet gossip concerning the matter, and the regular attendants there seem of the same opinion as Chinn—that Anthony should have kept out of the affair. It is stated on good authority that Anthony will resign and leave the city, going back to his old employment—that of tracing goods lost from cars in transit.

Dolla Cause Domestic Trouble.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 17.—Michael Moon, manufacturer of yeast, brought suit against his wife for divorce, and the case was called Wednesday. He charges his wife with cruelty and extravagance. Among the acts of extravagance cited by Moon was the purchasing of three large dolls. He states that his wife did not give birth to any children, and, being very fond of little ones, she sought to fill the long-felt want by buying the most expensive dolls she could find. The three mentioned cost $23 each and were bought in Germany, while Mrs. Moon was making a recent tour of that country.

GIFTS FOR THE SEMINARY.

A Heavy Contribution From Admirers of Dr. Briggs.

New York, Nov. 17.—The opponents of Rev. Dr. Charles A. Briggs have recently maintained that the split between the Union Theological seminary and the Presbyterian General assembly, which practically was brought about on his account, would result in great pecuniary loss to the seminary. This position has been stoutly denied before, but now the supporters of the seminary prove their point by the publication of a letter signed by four generous members of the board of directors. The signers of the letter, which was at once an expression of confidence and a contribution of $175,000, were John Crosby Brown, W. E. Dodge, D. Willis James and Morris Jessup. Mr. James gave $100,000 of the amount named, and Messrs. Jessup, Brown and Dodge gave $25,000 each. Another gentleman whose name is not yet announced has promised, it is said, another $25,000, which will bring the entire donation up to an even $200,000. The money will complete the endowment of the professorial funds and the two fellowships and will still leave $100,000 to the general fund. It places the institution in such a position that there will be no annual deficit.

STRIKERS ON TRIAL.

Critchlow Comes First, Then Clifford, Then Hugh O'Donnell.

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 17.—From now on, and for several months, the entire time of the criminal court is likely to be occupied with the trials of the ex-employees of Carnegie's works at Homestead, and who are under indictment on charges of murder, treason, aggravated conspiracy and riot. The initial case, that of Sylvester Critchlow, who is charged with the murder of C. J. Connors, one of the Pinkerton detectives shot down on the barge in the memorable conflict, is on the docket for trial Wednesday, and the impaneling of a jury will commence after lunch, the court being occupied Wednesday morning in hearing motions relating to other cases. After a verdict has been reached in Critchlow's case, Jack Clifford will be put on trial under the same indictment, and, according to the present programme of the state's attorney, Hugh O'Donnell, chairman of the Advisory board, and the head and front of the strike, will be placed in the dock.

TRIPLETS.

Two Democrats and One Republican—The Father the Former and the Mother the Latter.

New York, Nov. 17.—Grover, David B. and Harrison Struempfer are triplets. They were born Monday. Jacob Struempfer, their fond daddy, is a loyal democrat. His wife is a republican. That is why one of the triplets was named Harrison. Struempfer is the proprietor of the Twenty-eighth Ward hotel, Brooklyn. He was born in Brooklyn thirty-seven years ago. His wife was born in the same town two years later. The triplets were born half an hour apart. Each of them weighed eight pounds. Mr. Struempfer weighs 120 pounds. He is five feet tall. Mrs. Struempfer weighs 200 pounds.

Promise to Count Them.

COLUMBUS, Nov. 17.—Col. Poorman has returned from Washington C. H., where he had a consultation with the county board of elections. He went over the law with the board, convincing them that they had no power other than to count the returns made to them, and the democratic members agreed to make the count and sign the returns Wednesday. Unless they do so the supreme court will be appealed to for a mandamus to compel them to discharge their duty.

No Republican Club in Columbus.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 17.—The Lincoln league, the big republican club of Columbus, has disbanded. The directors resolved, that owing to trouble engendered during the campaign, it would be better to take this step. As all local republican clubs were merged into the league two years ago, this leaves not a single republican club in Columbus.

Prayer for 'Fossom Answered.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 17.—The prayer of Colored Convict Mose Allen for a possum at Thanksgiving dinner, offered at chapel last Sunday, was answered Wednesday. A live possum arrived by express at the state prison Wednesday morning, addressed to Allen. It came from Xenia, but there is nothing on the box to indicate who the sender is.

SARNIA, Ont., Nov. 17.—Schooner Hercules, which was supposed to have been lost with all hands, was wrecked at Michael's bay after several hardships. Her crew, consisting of Capt.
